Summary

My Name is Joanna Mamede and I'm a Bilingual Director, Writer and Translator brought up between Rio, São Paulo, and London attending International Schools throughout my life. I graduated from the Advertising School ESPM, in São Paulo in 2005. Since then, I have worked in Film and Television with international crews in Brazil and abroad. I write a monthly column about international relationships at The New Frame Post. And I am currently editing my latest experimental film, whilst attending the MRes Moving Image Program at Central Saint Martins in London, UK.
